

Living Ramadan 2020 in the context of the Coronavirus pandemic (Covid-19)

A month of fasting under the sign of wisdom, patience and solidarity

Mosques will remain closed to the public. the Tarawih prayer can only be performed at home with family members living under the same roof.

In order to avoid gatherings in front of food stores, Muslims are requested not to wait until the end of the day to do the grocery shopping. It is important to be moderate and not to buy too much in order to avoid wasting and excessive consumption.

Shopkeepers are requested to organise the flow of customers in order to respect social distancing.

The fast breaking meals must be eaten and shared at home and only with family members living under the same roof. Inviting relatives, friends or neighbours is unfortunately prohibited. This implies a ban on gatherings after iftars.

The faithful who stay awake part of the night must make sure to respect the tranquillity of their neighbourhood.

Take care of yourself and others!
